Professional Summary

Expert in art history, archaeology, and architectural studies, specializing in the MENA region, particularly Syria. My commitment lies in the preservation and rehabilitation of cultural heritage affected by conflict and the recent earthquake in Kahramanmaraş. My academic journey began with a Bachelor's in Architecture and culminated in a Master's from University Lumière Lyon II and PhD from EPHE Paris. Throughout my career, my research has been dedicated to exploring the complexities of architectural and cultural heritage in the MENA region, leveraging HBIM technology to advance our understanding and preservation initiatives.
